

WWRC opens new Sales & Procurement Office in US

WWRC Group, a leading distributor of specialty chemicals and ingredients, is excited to announce the opening of a new sales and procurement office in North Carolina, USA. The new office enables WWRC to source more effectively for our clients and better allows WWRC to serve its North American customers.

Since the recent opening of the office, we have been getting enquiries for chemical ingredients from WWRC's extensive product portfolio. We are also pleased to co-operate closely with our US based suppliers in providing the best solutions for our clients globally.

Arthur Geeng, is the Director of Commercial Operations in North America. He can be contacted at arthur\_geeng@wwrc.com

*WWRC is a global leader providing chemical solutions for various industries – oil and gas, plastics, personal care, and many more.
